

Academic Integrity Workshop Quiz

Please email your responses to the questions below to crequejo@saonet.ucla.edu

1. Which office is responsible for presenting this workshop?
2. According to the presenter, “Students are expected to have behavior that is consistent with _____.”
3. Name three of the most common forms of Academic Integrity violations.
4. According to the presenter, throughout the presentation you will learn what four things?
5. Name the five True Bruin Values.
6. Select one of the five True Bruin Values and explain its meaning.
7. What recommendation was provided for students that study together with regard to taking exams or quizzes?
8. Explain “Unauthorized Collaboration.”
9. According to the section that addresses “Multiple Submissions,” what should you do if you are interested in submitting an old paper or project in a new course?
10. What problems can occur should you choose to use someone else’s paper as a “guide?”
11. Name the two forms of plagiarism, and describe the difference between the two.
12. Why is it important to provide an in-text citation?
13. When is it necessary to use quotation marks?
14. Can you get in trouble for giving your paper to another student?
15. Can you fail the course if you are found responsible for academic misconduct?
16. Name four consequences of academic misconduct.
17. What does C.O.D.E stand for?
18. Please list three University resources that are available to students, along with one service that each provides: (Example: The Office of the Dean of Students provides free Citation Workshops for UCLA Students.)
19. Do you feel you were aware of many of the concepts in this workshop beforehand? If not, which aspects were new to you?
20. Please provide any feedback you have regarding how the Office of the Dean of Students can better educate students with regard to Academic Integrity.